This stunning and substantially extended 1930's semi-detached home, is positioned on the ever-desirable Great North Road in Brunton Park, Gosforth. The property will appeal to the growing family and those looking to upsize.

Internally the property briefly comprises to the ground floor: imposing entrance hallway with turn around staircase and storage, bright and airy lounge with a bay window and a breathtaking open plan kitchen diner/ family room with a wood burning stove, fitted shaker style units, complementing work surfaces, breakfast bar, roof lights and bi-fold doors that effortlessly blend indoor and outdoor living. There is also a handy utility room and ground floor WC/shower. To the first floor there are four good sized bedrooms, a study, and an opulent family bathroom WC with four-piece suite including a free-standing bathtub. Further benefits include gas central heating and double glazing.

Externally there is a paved driveway to the front for off street parking leading to storage space with garage door access. There is also a beautiful West-facing rear garden with decking, a well-maintained lawn and planted borders. An ideal space to relax in the warmer months.

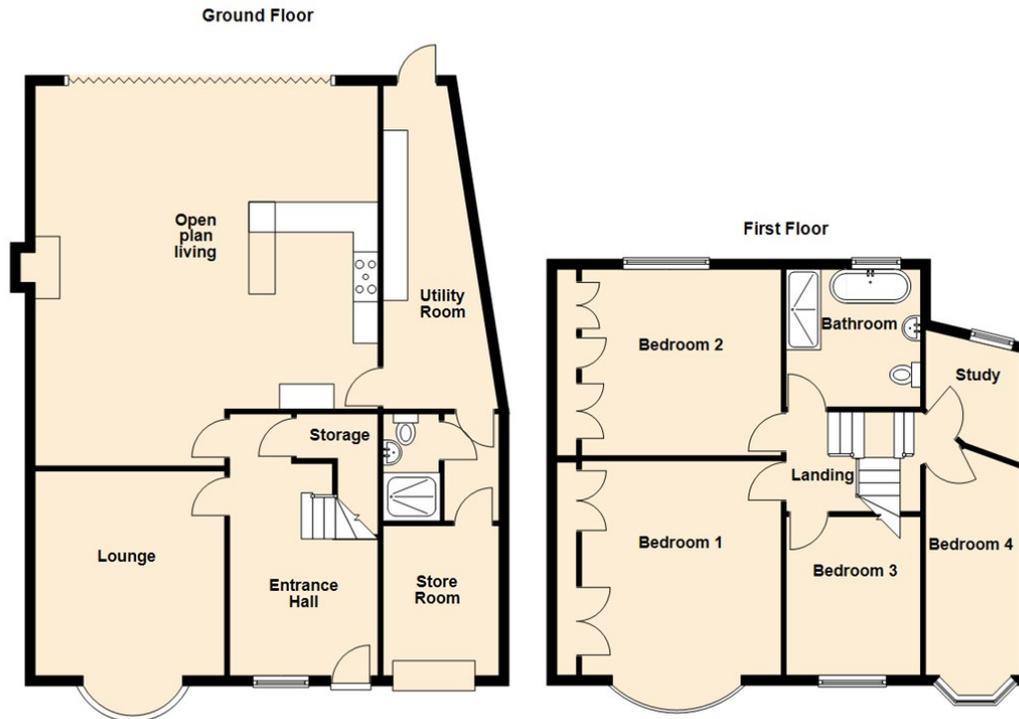

The exact location offers easy access to a variety of local amenities such as cafes, shops, and a post office. Additional facilities, including charming cafes, a diverse selection of restaurants, and numerous shops, can be found within walking distance on Gosforth High Street. Nature enthusiasts will also appreciate the excellent green spaces nearby- perfect for outdoor enjoyment. There are excellent transport connections nearby, including regular bus routes and the metro service to Newcastle city centre, as well as the A1 highway.
